

CRYSTAL
proudly presents

Kate Gilmore
May 30 - June 17
Opening ceremony Saturday May 29, 2 - 7 p.m.

Kate Gilmore is sole protagonist in her performative videos as she attempts to conquer self-constructed obstacles. Her videos explore issues of displacement, struggles and female identity with metamorphic depth and formal sophistication. Gilmore's tragicomic displays posit physical situations as metaphor for present-day conflicts and social obstacles. - Margot Norton

Kate Gilmore is born 1975 in Washington DC and lives and works in New York. She participated in the 2010 Whitney Biennial. Her solo shows include "Walk the Walk" a performance piece in Bryant Park, NYC in collaboration with Public Art Fund, Franco Soffiantino Arte Contemporanea, Turin, Italy, Institute of Contemporary Art, Philadelphia, Smith-Stewart Gallery, New York and Artspace, San Antonio, Texas.

The solo show at Crystal is the first presentation of Kate Gilmore's work in Sweden.
